The Community Justice Board Program is currently looking for volunteers who would enjoy:

- Guiding youth to make positive life choices;
- Helping youth gain insight about their actions; and
- Working with community members in a team setting.

The Community Justice Board is a Pima County Attorney's Office diversion program that provides an alternative to traditional prosecution. Volunteers work with first- or second- time youth offenders on holding them accountable and building on their assets. If this is of interest to you, please see the PCAO CJB webpage --

<http://www.pcao.pima.gov/communityjustice.aspx> -- for more information and an application form. Questions? Contact

PCAO CJB Program Coordinator AnnaMarie Irons at annamarie.iron@pcao.pima.gov or 520-740-5608.

A Brush with Kindness with Habitat for Humanity

Habitat Home Repairs have a community impact. One program that gives low-income families a "hand up" is the A Brush with Kindness program helping keep people in their homes. Habitat Tucson's programs do much more than paint and repair. They also restore pride and hope in the homeowners. Their March 7 project will be in the Sunnyside Neighborhood Association and if you are wanting to help one of your neighbors please call Luis and volunteer. 520-409-5532

A Few words from First Book

A picture might be worth a thousand words, but a #SHELFIE photo could be worth a MILLION NEW BOOKS. I am writing to ask you to join in a fun and exciting First Book campaign that will get more books into the hands of kids in need - simply by sharing a photo!

What is a #SHELFIE you ask? It's a photo of you (and/or the kids you work with) holding a favorite book that you then share via social media. This is part of our #MagicOfStorytelling million book challenge, recently launched on Good Morning America. For every $5 donated Disney will donate two books to First Book, up to 1 million books.

Will you join us? By posting your #SHELFIE, you can show your support for First Book and help bring the magic of books to all kids. It is important that you know I am not asking for a personal donation from you. Instead, I am asking for something much more important - your help to spread the word. And of course, for a great #SHELFIE photo!

Here are a few sample messages you can use to get started:

Twitter: Here's my #MagicOfStorytelling #SHELFIE! Share yours & give to @FirstBook: $5=2 books to kids.

Facebook: Here's my #MagicOfStorytelling #SHELFIE! Share yours and donate to @FirstBook at www.firstbook.org/beinspired. @Disney and @FirstBook will give 2 books for every $5 donated - up to 1 million books!

Get creative and add in your personal flair! We'll pick one social media post that includes the language above each week between February 23rd and March 31st to receive a $100 First Book Marketplace credit.

Thanks in advance for helping us reach more children. For more information or to see our new PSA, visit www.firstbook.org/beinspired.
